

30 Ways to Choose a Group Leader

Choosing group leaders and volunteers during training sessions, especially in longer programs where this task is done again and again, can become repetitious. Here are some creative ways to choose your group leaders. Choose the person:

1. With the most pets living in the house
2. With the closest birthday
3. With the newest car
4. With the longest commute to work
5. With the most brothers and sisters
6. With the most children
7. With the most grandchildren
8. Who has been married the longest
9. Who has been married the shortest
10. Who got up earliest this morning
11. Who went to bed the latest last night
12. Who graduated with the largest class
13. Who graduated with the smallest class
14. Who has the most cousins
15. Who has the most letters in their first name
16. Who has the least letters in their last name
17. Who lives the furthest from seminar location
18. Who lives closest to seminar location
19. Who recently saw a movie
20. Who has had the longest plane ride
21. Who has the longest hair
22. Who has the most (pick a color) on
23. Who is the tallest
24. Who is the shortest
25. Who has been on the most recent vacation
26. Who has lived in their current home the longest
27. Who has changed residence most recently
28. Who others agree has the most unique hobby
29. Who has most recently eaten chocolate
30. Who has traveled to the most countries (states or continents)